HOUSE OF ENTERTAINMENT,

one mile from Kosciusko on the Rockport road;
BY WILLIAM THOMPSON: WHO would most respectfully inform his friends and the public generally that he has fitted up his residence in good style, and that he is now prepared to accommodate all who may feel disposed to give him a call, in a comfortable manner. This stand is situate one mile from Kosciusko, and is admirably located and suited to the convenience and accommodation of those persons having business in Kosciusko for a few days, as it is plenty near town to afford them no inconvenience as to distance. He is well prepared with good stables which shall be at all times well furnished and well attended to.
Possessed of all the advantages arising from raising every thing necessary to the support of a tavern stand, he is enabled to accommodate persons in better style and at more moderate prices, than those lying in town, who have every thing to purchase at the present very high and almost unprecedented prices of provision. He is determined to accommodate the weary traveller, and all others, in the very best possible manner, or will charge them nothing. Under these circumstances and a firm determination to accommodate all in a kind and hospitable manner, he hopes to share liberally of the patronage of a kind and generous public. July 27, 1839. 47w

Military Election.
